

6. Home is a special kind of feeling

David Grant

JOHN RUTTER

Gently, but moving along (♩ = 96)

PIANO

p (con fad.)

5 ALL VOICES unis.
p dolce, legato

Home is a spe - cial kind of feel - ing: _____ The 9

S. A. feel - ing of a place where you be - long; _____ A T. B.

13 poco cresc. mp

feel - ing that the world is left be - hind you, _____ poco cresc. mp unis. Like a 17

shel - ter from your care _____ That seems to want you to be there. _____

21 Home is that spe - cial kind of feel - ing: _____ The mp p mm.

p p

25 feel - ing that you've made it all your own; _____

(mm)

29 mp Some - where which you know is real - ly your place; mf place, mp A place for

mp mf mm

33 liv - ing; p Your spe - cial place, your home.

(mm) p

37 mf warmly

Home has a wel-come kind of

mf warmly

mf warmly

41

feel - ing: The fire - light and the warmth of hearth and 45

home; A wel-come that you know will al - ways

mp mm

mf mp mm

mp

49 Like a gen - tle — fond 'hel - lo' — that seems to

mp

mm cheer you, — mm

mm mp

53 touch you with a glow. — mf mm Home has a qui - et kind of

mf

57 feel - ing: — An is - land when you need to be a -

61

- lone; A ha - ven for the times you spend to -

mp

mp

mp

65

- geth - - er; There's no - where bet - ter, No

mf

mp

p mf

mp

p

68

o - ther place like home.

rit.

a tempo

rit. al fine

rit.

a tempo

rit. al fine