

O thou who camest from above

65

Hereford

S.S. Wesley (1810-1876)

1..O thou who ca - mest from a - bove the 4..Still let me prove thy per - fect will, My fire ce - le - stial and to im - part kin - acts of faith and love re - peat; Till dle a flame of sac - red love on death thy end - less mer - cies seal, and the mean al - tar of my heart.

make the sac - ri - fice com - plete.

2.. There let it for thy glory burn with inextinguishable blaze, and trembling to its source return in humble prayer and fervent praise.

3.. Jesus, confirm my heart's desire to work and speak and think for thee; still let me guard the holy fire and still stir up the gift in me.