

Psalm 27

June Nixon

1. The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom then shall I fear:
3. Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid:

(1) the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid.
(3) and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in Him.

2. When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes,
came upon me to eat up my flesh:
4. One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require:

(2) they stum - bled and fell.
(4) even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,
to behold the fair beauty of the Lord and to visit his temple.

5. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me . in his tabernacle.

8. Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee:

Glory be to the Father and to the Son:

(5) yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me,
and set me up up - on a rock of stone.

(8) have mercy . up - on me . and hear me.

and to the Ho - ly Ghost;

6. And now he shall lift up mine head:

7. Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation, with great gladness:

9. My heart hath talked of thee, seek ye my face:

As it was in the beginning, is now and e - ver shall be;

(6) above mine ene - mies round a - bout me.

(7) I will sing and speak prai - ses unto the Lord.

(9) Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

World without end. A - - men.
